Submitted at meeting – Information packet by Chris Christoff

Minutes:

CHRIS CHRISTOFF appeared and submitted a packet of pictures depicting the vision of Huntridge Circle Park and asked Council to make this a possibility. He also thanked staff and Council for their diligence in working with him.

COUNCILMAN REESE informed COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN that they are in preliminary talks concerning Huntridge Circle Park. He noted that it is important to follow through with MR. CHRISTOFF'S vision, as it will be a very nice facility added to the park.

DOROTHY BARNES, Las Vegas resident, hoped her name has been canceled from the program.

RASHAND JOSHUA COLLINS expressed concern that governing bodies do not understand nor study the laws of the state. He stated he had met with MAYOR GOODMAN and expressed concern with some of the Mayor's comments. He disagreed with the statement that obscenity is protected by the First Amendment and he asked for enforcement of public decency laws.

JOHNNY VENTURA, 601 Raintree Lane, read from the resolution regarding street signs and noted that streets and buildings are in violation. He solicited funding for the Clark County Chronicle, his newspaper.

TED RUSSELL, Las Vegas resident, announced that April 18th is his birthday and congratulated the members of the council on their re-election. He complimented the MAYOR on his vision, and he thanked staff for their hard work.

ORLANDO DELGADO, 225 South 10th Street, Unit 4, thanked the Council for their help and quick action. He gave an update on a senior citizen's situation and suggested using his services as the first line of defense for senior citizens.

Meeting adjourned at 7:53 p.m.
